The meeting began at 5:00.

FACULTY IN ATTENDANCE:
Dr. Tony Hecimovic, GSA faculty advisor

MEMBERS IN ATTENDANCE:
Julane Tabbert, Brendan Hunscher, Noelle Clark, Kerensa Funk, Angela Jones, Brenda Hatcher, Henry Lemieux, Jeanie Stukey, and Kathryn Sorum.

GSA SURVEYS
The GSA surveys on the graduate students’ views of on-campus services are expected to be finished by the 15th of April. Kathryn Sorum, the awesome author of the surveys, will work with Kerensa Funk to type the comments from the surveys. Chandra Porter tabulated the results. Thank you, Chandra! Brenda Hatcher and Julane Tabbert will type the reports for each applicable office.

NEW OFFICERS
The new officers are officially voted into office. Brenda Hatcher, Brendan Hunscher, and Kerensa Funk will take the reins on April 1st. Good luck! We are going to miss Kathryn Sorum dearly. She is a wonderful leader with warm heart.

NEW DEAN OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
The Department of Arts and Sciences is interviewing candidates for the position of the Dean. Two candidates have already been interviewed. The two remaining candidates are scheduled for meetings with graduate students this month. Anyone can attend, meet these individuals, and ask them questions. Dr. Nona Fienberg from New Hampshire will be on campus March 24th at 1:00 PM in the Missouri Room of the SUB. Dr. Grady Price Blount from Texas A&M will be here Tuesday, March 30th at 1:00 PM in the Missouri Room. Take advantage of this opportunity to meet these wonderful people and get to know them!

MSUB EASTER EGG HUNT
During the April 1st meeting, the GSA will help to fill the Easter eggs! Please come and join in the fun-the more the merrier! Saturday, April 10th is the Egg Hunt. Volunteers are needed to hide the eggs. Watch for updates on the time.

LEADERSHIP RECOGNITION PROGRAM
Nomination forms are available in the SUB, room 219. On April 19th, 27 awards will be given to individuals and groups for outstanding leadership. You may recommend individual or an organization. The deadline for nominations is April 7, 2004.

The meeting ended at 6:00.
